

The Florida Citrus Bowl

1610 West Church Street, Orlando, FL 32805-2157

Project Description

The Florida Citrus Bowl, formerly Orlando Stadium, Tangerine Bowl and the Citrus Bowl, is a stadium in Orlando, Florida, USA, built for football which currently seats around 70,000 people. Its main events are the Capital One Bowl, the Champs Sports Bowl, and Monster Jam. It also hosts the annual Florida Classic between Florida A&M and Bethune-Cookman, and the MEAC/SWAC Challenge. The Citrus Bowl is also primary home of the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League.

From 1979-2006, it served as the home of the UCF Knights football team. It was also one of the nine venues used for the 1994 FIFA World Cup.

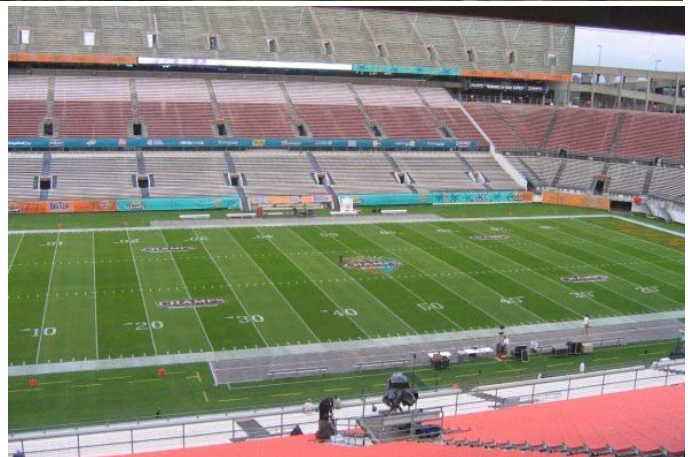

QGS Development was contracted to provide renovations to the football field of The Citrus Bowl for the World Cup event in 1994. Currently QGS provides grassing services for The Citrus Bowl.
