

The Reserve Golf Club

Pawley's Island, SC

Project Description

The Reserve is a 7,000 yard private championship golf course designed by World Championship Golfer Greg Norman in 1997 and constructed by QGS Development in 1998. The course is located in the low country of South Carolina, 65 miles North of Charleston. The Reserve is ranked in the Top 100 Private Courses in North America.

Project Details

- Year Completed: 1998
- Project Type: Private (New Construction)
- Project Architect: Greg Norman Golf Design
- Work Performed: Clearing, Major Earthwork, Subsurface Drainage, Shaping, USGA Features Construction, Irrigation, Cart Paths, Bridges, and Grassing.